

Emergency Placements is short-term support for people who need more help than usual either at their home or away from where they usually live.