

Residential care is long-term 24/7 care and support for adults who stay in a residential setting rather than their own home or family home